Next

Install (this will take longer than the Player to install as the song tracks are bigger)

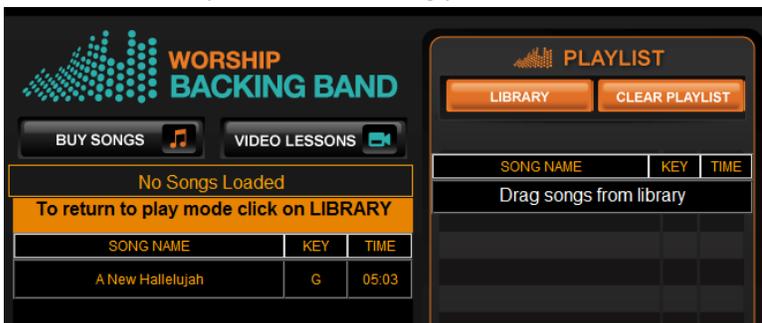

Now click Finish

- Go back to your player (it should be open in your browser window). Refresh the window by clicking the little refresh symbol on the top left of your browser.

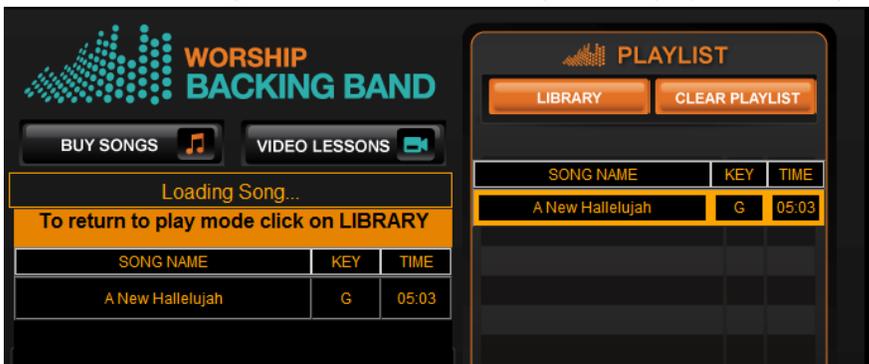

Or alternatively close the window and open the player again (remember that once you have the songs in your library you won't need to be online when you use the player)

- Click LIBRARY and you will see the song you have downloaded

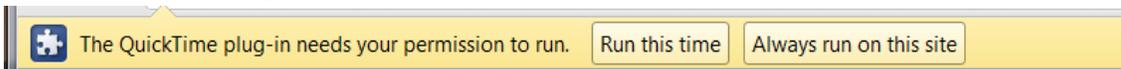

- Now click on the song title in the middle and drag it to the playlist on the right.

- Click LIBRARY again in order to return to play mode.
- The song will take a little while to load to the player.

You may see this message:

You need to click one of these buttons otherwise the Player won't work.

Now you are ready to either load more songs or start experimenting with the one you have loaded.

- Click PLAY to begin playing.
- Look at the panel on the left. This shows the individual instrument tracks. Here is some more info about the stems <http://www.worshipbackingband.com/uk/multitrack-stems>

You can mute any of the stems by clicking MUTE or solo any of the by clicking SOLO (great for learning individual parts).

There is a separate controller for the Left and Right channels (one being for your band, and the other for the congregation). You'll want to take the volume of the congregation mix right down for elements such as the CLICK and the VOX CUE.

Adjust the volume of each stem by moving the sliders.

Click SAVE SONG MIX to save your final mix.

Click RESET SONG MIX to go back to the default settings.

Please note that your license only allows you to download the player and songs on a single PC. Please contact us for multi user / multi pc licenses.

We would encourage you to create a backup copy of the player and songs (for instance on a memory stick) in case you lose them on your hard drive. The player and songs normally allow just one or two download attempts and will not be permanently available in your account after the initial download.
